

Royal Albert Hall

Structures

In your groups have a look at these structures and see if you can answer the following questions:

- What materials have been used?
- How are the materials arranged?
- Why have the materials been organized in this way? What might happen if these structures were not arranged in these ways?
- How will this help you with the structures you are designing?